

Border Terrier Club of America
Policies and Procedures Manual

Honorary Life Membership Policy

Honorary Life Membership may be granted to members, and past members, of the BTCA who have demonstrated continual support of the BTCA through long-term membership and dedication to the breed. Any member of the club may nominate an active, inactive or former member. Nominations should be made by a letter to the Board explaining why the nominee should be considered. The letter should include the activities and/or involvement with the breed. The board will take into consideration the nominee's length of membership in the BTCA, activities with the BTCA, age, involvement with Border Terriers, regional activities with a local Border Terrier club and reputation. An Honorary Life Member will continue to receive the Borderline will retain all the rights, privileges and responsibilities of a regular member as a Member in Good Standing. Honorary Life Members are exempt from paying dues to the BTCA.